Sea and winds: an intense harmony

A powerful and famous wind - the Bora - which can almost be considered a part of the landscape.
Modern and efficient marinas offering one of the highest number of moorings in the Mediterranean.
All sailors, whether skilled skippers or beginners, will feel perfectly at ease in Friuli Venezia Giulia. Here, rather than simply admiring the sea, you can criss-cross it on a windsurf, kitesurf, on water skis or in a sailing boat. And there's always a skilled instructor on hand in the various activity centres located directly on the beaches.
